Miss Lynen
I don't know quite what to write to a teacher but I suppose you all are human just as we are.
When you read this please don't go through reading for spelling punctuation or sentence structure errors. See you next year.

Dora Heiter
"63"

Miss Lynen,
You're a swell teacher & I learned a lot from you.
Gwen Anderson

Miss Lynen,
Really give it to them next year. You certainly did this year and I learned a lot.
Paul Fuchem

Miss Lynen,
I have really enjoyed having you as an English teacher this year.
I think I have learned a lot this year.
Carolyn Bowdy

Miss Lynen,
I think you're a good teacher. It's just to say I'm a fan. Chad Olson

Miss Lynen,
I please pass me in E nglish 101
Thank you

Miss Lynen,
I've had fun even though we've had some standing and the luck was not Scott Wilson

Miss. Synen
 I have enjoyed much in your English class very much, and have learned very much. Lots of fun in the future and all that you do. May God bless you and all our dreams come true.

just me,
 I honor of you

Miss Synen,
 I have learned a lot this year. Thanks for all the help and understanding.
 I'd like to leave you with this little laugh. HA, HA, HA.
 God Bless you.

Miss Synen,
 I think I've enjoyed this class. But I'll remember it more if you pass me.
 Best wishes
 from a swell kid. For service

Miss. Synen
 I am not sure that I have passed yet but even if I don't I have had a riot anyway.
 I have learned more this year than last and it has been more fun. We had a lot of fun in the sixth grade to so I hope it will continue in my senior year.
 I wish you all the luck you will need with next years juniors.
 I think they are a great group. (I Girls) I hope I spelled everything right
 and that you can read it. Good Luck and best wishes.

Miss Lynen,
You are a wonderful teacher and I think that this year I learned the most in English.
This was the first year I was ever interested.

I hope I will see you next year and I hope you keep up the good teaching. You teach as if you really enjoy it and I think you do.

Have a nice summer, see you next year.

Miss Lynen, I'll
probably say the same thing as everyone else but I truly hard to struggle for me in English but you've given me knowledge I would not have had without a good teacher as you were.
See you next year & have an enjoyable summer.

Four years ago we stepped inside
The welcoming front door,
And tho' we barely realized These years would mean much more Than just an education Or a job that must be done;
For these years were packed With comedy, tears, laughter, and fun.

The world outlined a challenge As freshmen we became,
And each new friend we met here
Was more than just a name.
That first year passed so quickly (Oh . . . to live it again)
The doors were opened a second time
And we were sophomores then.

We plunged into it thoughtlessly Without looking at the past,
For yesterday meant little to us Who were juniors, at long last.
The class rings came and we were thrilled
With joy beyond compare,
And a feeling of pride came over us,
A feeling we each could share.

Our senior year was upon us,
And we began to regret We would have to leave this place
That we never could forget.
A diploma was our goal,
But we knew deep down inside
The years spent in Wheat Ridge
High
Were actually our greatest pride.

The best years of our lives
Were spent in Wheat Ridge
High.
We were a member of the band;
In chorus our voices rang high.
We witnessed the crowning of many a queen, We built some floats and staged some plays,
And enjoyed every moment of our dream.

Sometimes we laughed, sometimes we cried,
But we never weakened beneath our load
For there always seemed to be A helping hand along the road.
We'd like to express our gratitude To each of you who strives
To make the years at Wheat Ridge High
The best years of your lives.

FARMERS' FROLICS

This year for the first time, the Senior-sponsored Farmer's Frolics presented the variety show and fun-night at different times. The variety show took the audience on a fanciful flight down Broadway's Great White Way. Among the 19 presentations were a magic act by Larry Bramble, solo by Miss Caryl Tenney, and a "beat" bongo party performed by Bob Nelson and Chuck Wright. WHS students enjoyed the traditional fun and festivities of Farmer's Frolics, 1960 as seniors were dunked, classes participated in a free-for-all, and teachers were put in stocks.

Above: Ginny Osborne is studying that painting with great interest, and she should be selling FTA candy or hanging Pep Club posters.

SENIOR

Above: Talie Tschannen, student body secretary, certainly isn't writing notes. Bet it's a pretty picture, though! Right: National Honor Society president, Ron Hess, certainly has a right to be proud of that charter!

The WHS faculty has chosen these eight seniors as the most outstanding members of the class on the basis of initiative, dependability, judgment, and cooperation. We're proud of the Class of '61, and these students have earned special merit. May they continue to be strong leaders.

Left: Here's our efficient student body treasurer, Nancy Ridinger, ready to sell you some notebook paper. Below: Whom do you suppose Barry Cormack is smiling so brightly at? Or perhaps he's singing. He does both well.

SUPERLATIVES

Left: Keeping hard at work in the photo lab is the Blue and Gold Banner editor, Dick Schreiber, who also doubles as annual photographer. Below: Jon Tschannen seems interested in something. It may be something to do with the Student Council Problem Committee. Jon's the chairman, you know!

STUDENT COUNCIL

The 1960-1961 officers and council may be best described as enthusiastic, original, and aggressive. It is said that an organization never rises above its leaders. We may well apply this old, but true, saying and give credit where it is due when we recognize the high spiritual level which every student has felt during this school year.

Dave presides regularly over the meetings held every Wednesday during homeroom period.

Nancy Ridinger and Mike Day devote much of their time to the Student Council Store, which sells student book supplies as a service to the student body and a means of raising money for the Council's use.

KANDAHAR SKI CLUB

In view of its accomplishments, another successful year for the Kandahar Ski Club has come to an end. Ski Week was a great promotion, followed by the Snowflake Ball, the candy sale, and the tremendous enthusiasm and membership the club has promoted. Members of the Ski Team have boosted participation by competing in many ski meets.

Miss Conner said this country has been English demanding, I didn't think it was challenging, I earned a lot of money in a year and I should be a member of the Ski Club.

As our American life and our place in the world become more complex, there is more need for intelligent leadership in business and the professions, in schools and communities, in local, state, and national government. Future leadership must come from today's young people whose knowledge, understanding, and judgment have been enhanced by a good education.

The National Honor Society recognizes this scholastic achievement by limiting its membership to those who demonstrate these qualities.

WIN BERTH IN STATE TOURNEY

The Wheat Ridge High School basketball teams of 60-61 have displayed great enthusiasm throughout the season. With a 12-5 record, the varsity team, coached by Harvey Moore, has placed second in our Jefferson County League and won a berth in state tourney competition. Here are a group of boys who have concentrated on teamwork and the unglorious job of defense to mold a fine team unit. Our B-Squad cagers, spurred on to victory by Coach Bill Proctor, has fought a statistically successful season and illustrated a record of true sportsmanship and ability.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On December 15 and 16 the Junior Class of Wheat Ridge High School presented the comedy YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU. This enjoyable play is based on the book written by Moss Hart and George L. Kaufman. It tells of the problems one girl meets in marrying from middle class society into wealth, the family differences being the main one. The cast did a pleasing job under the direction of Mrs. Bellman, and the play was a big success.

On November 12, 1960, thirty-two eagerly excited WHS students departed from Union Station for a two-week exchange trip to Bradenton, Florida, where they spent a week attending Manatee High School and touring local points of interest including Cypress Gardens, Bok Tower, and deep sea fishing trips. After departure from Florida, they spent another week touring New Orleans and Houston. Upon arrival in Denver, the group spent its homerom periods planning a schedule of entertainment for the Florida exchange during their return visit to Wheat Ridge, February 25 — March 4. To raise money they successfully carried out a potato chip sale, candy sale, chili supper, and Valentine's dance. Sponsors are Miss Donna Tschappat and Mr. Larry Wallace.
